YE GREEN QUILL

HERKIMER SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

HERKIMER, NEW YORK

We've only just begun to live . . .
Before the rising sun, we stand, so much of life ahead . . .
So many roads to choose
We start out walking and learn to run . . .
And yet we've just begun.

There's a time in school
to pick books up,
and a time to put them down.
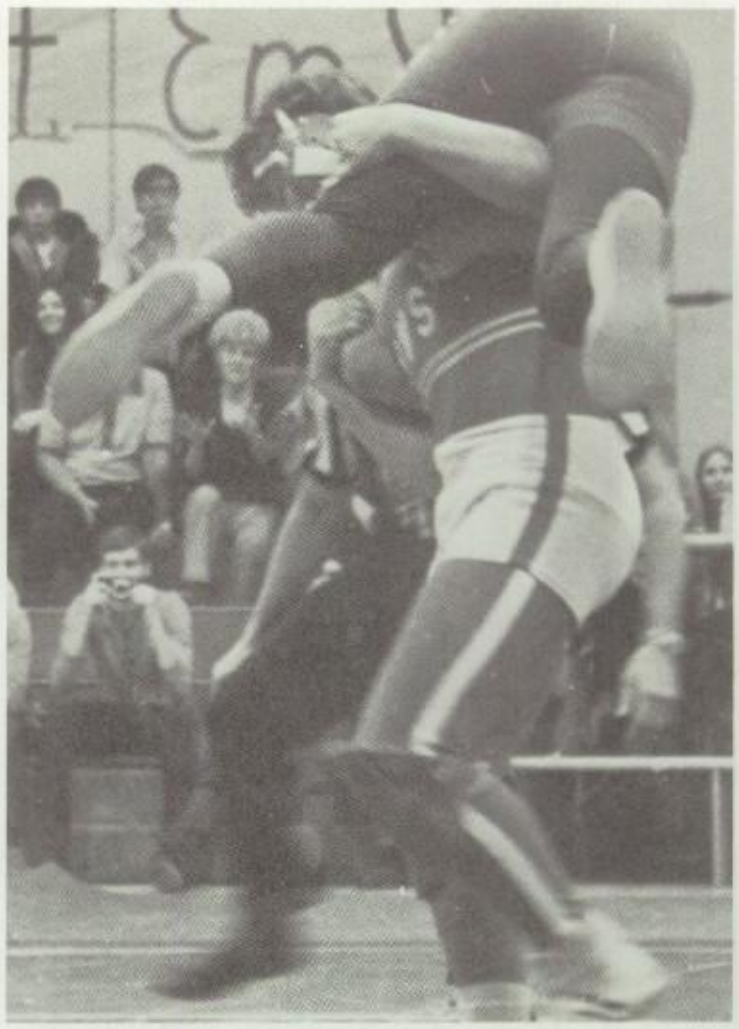
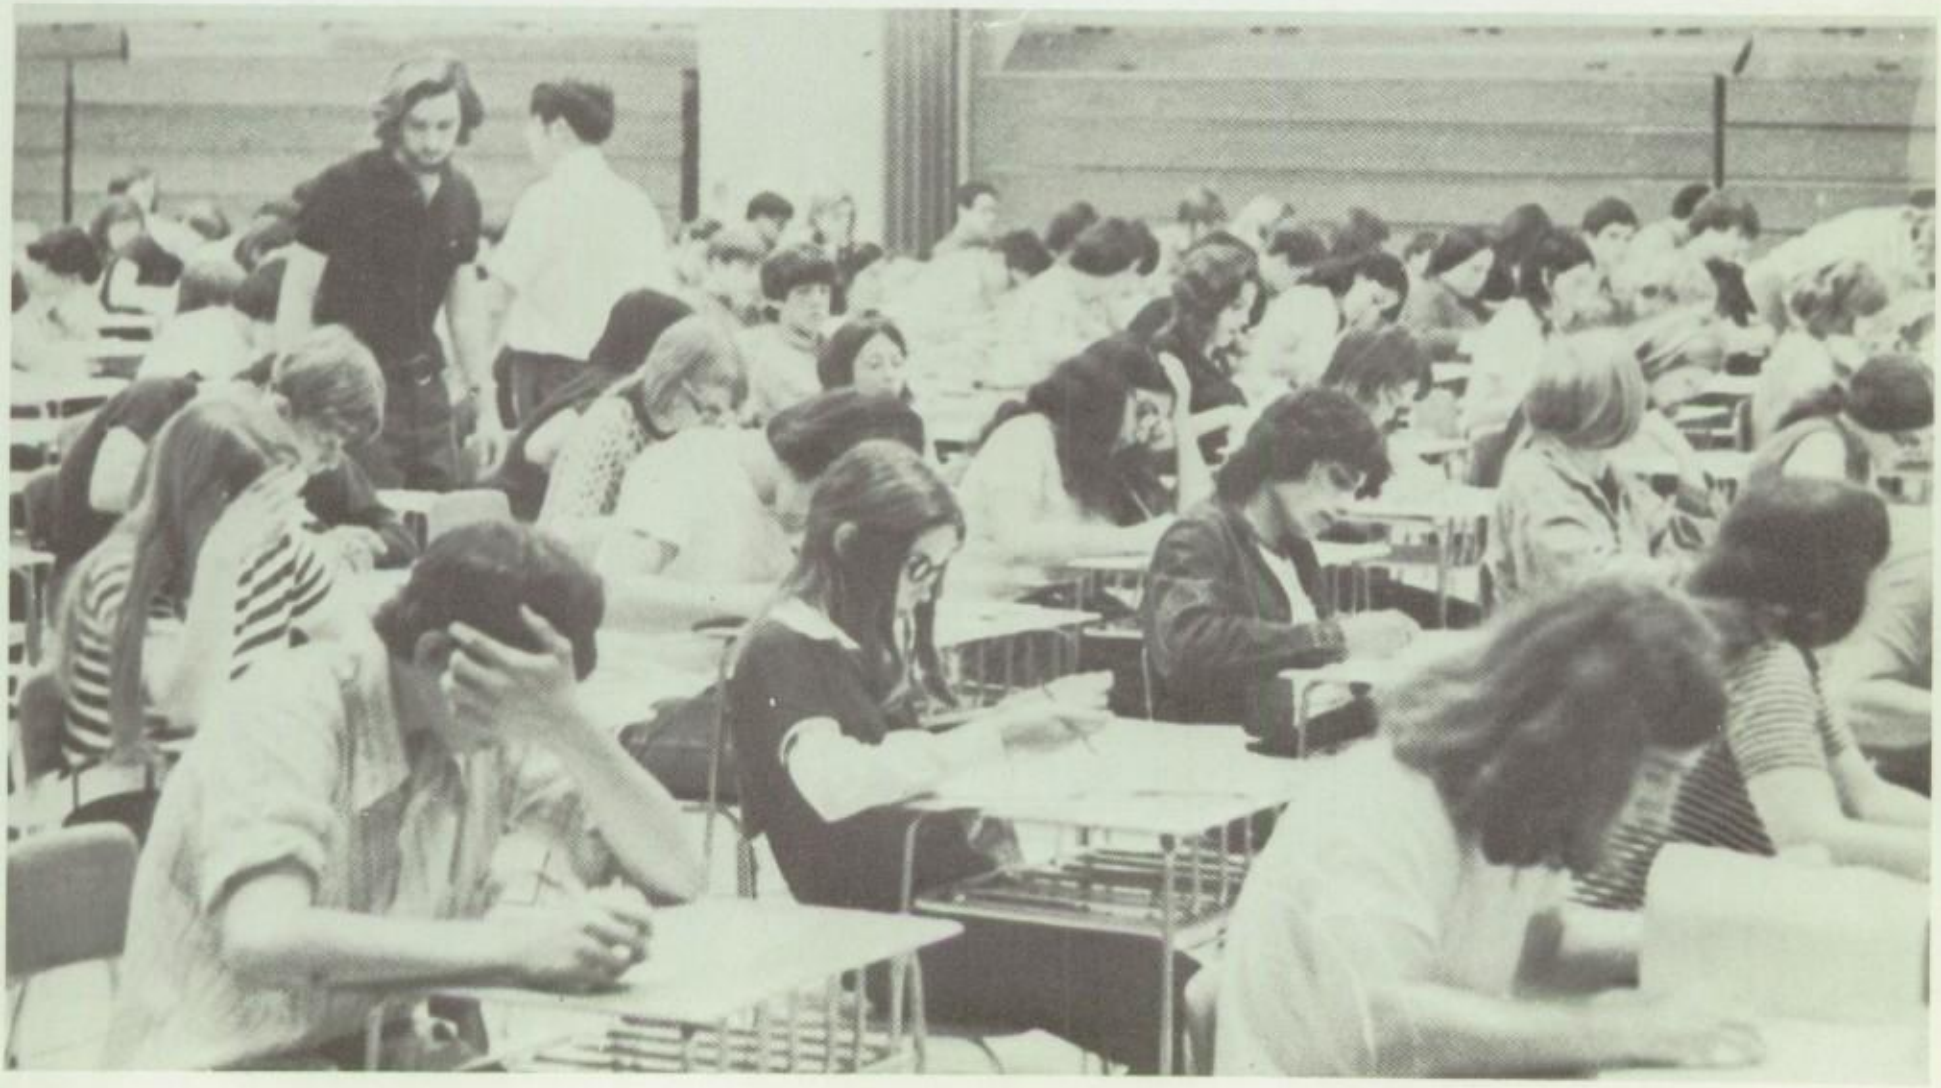
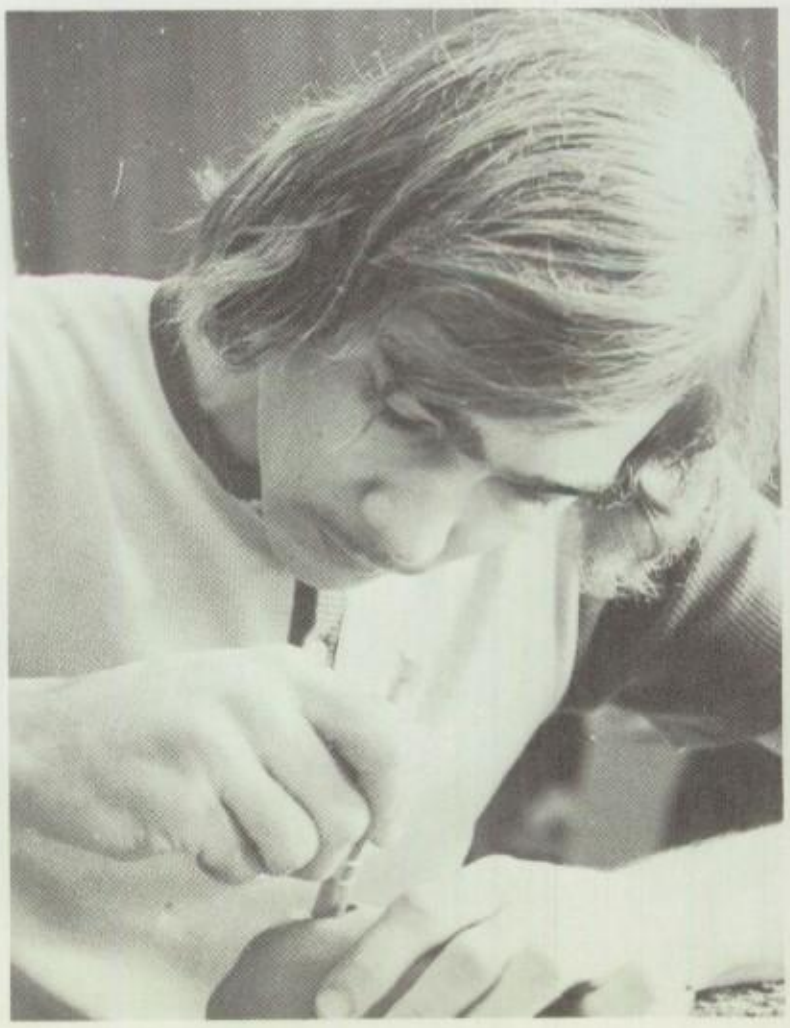
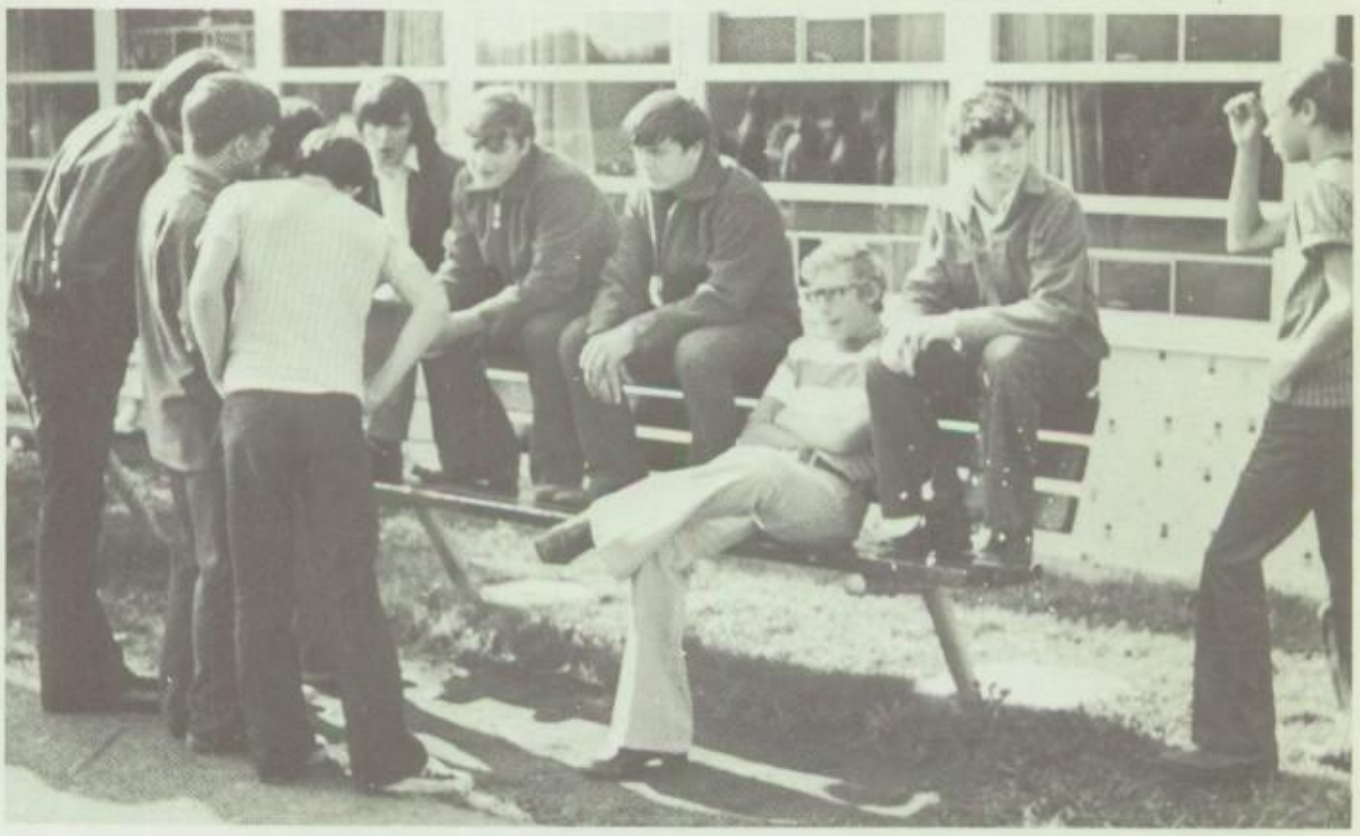
A time for fun and games
when the work is done.

Love, Alan









Games and leisure,
facets of life.
A time in school
for asking why,
and a time for
friends' reply.
A time under a learned roof,
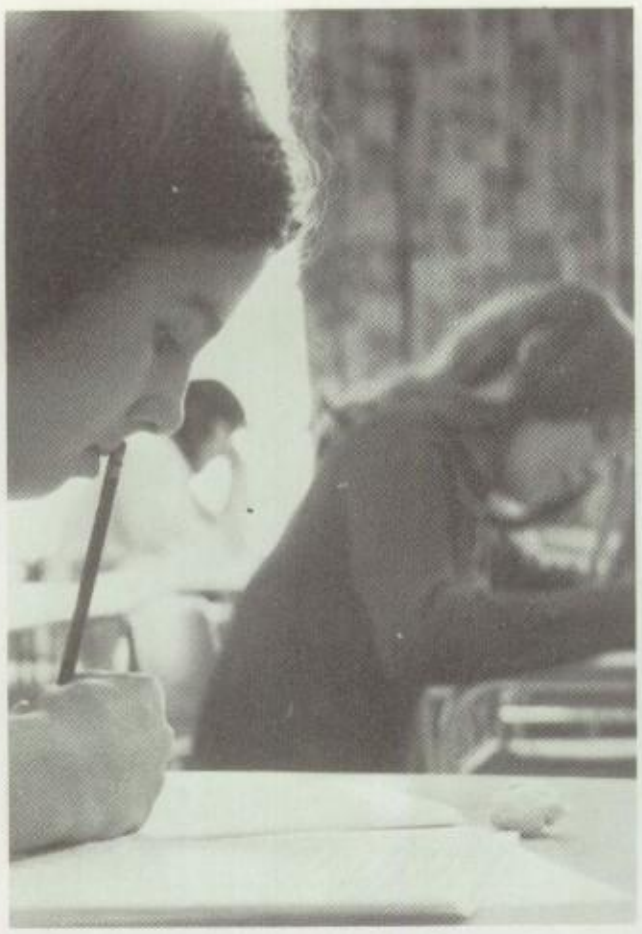
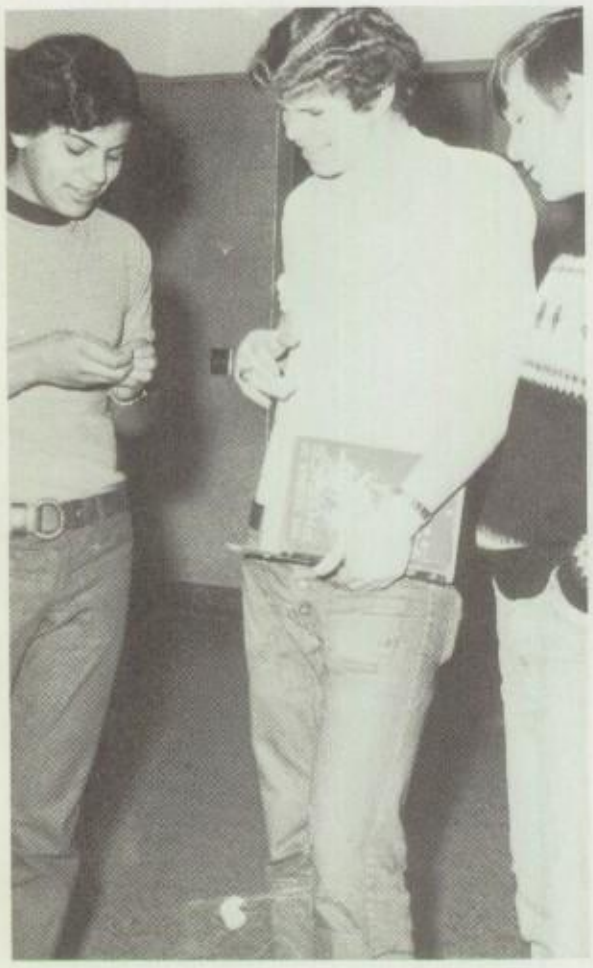
and a time
under the sky.

Love, Alan





Those were the days my friend
We'd thought they'ed never end
We'd sing and dance forever and a day
We'd play the games we'd choose We'd fight and never lose Though we were young and sure to have our way . . .

I pass through this world but once,
if therefore, there is any kindness
I can show to any human being,
let me do it now;
let me not defer or neglect it,
for I shall not pass this

AS LONG AS I'M ALIVE

I'm going to plant a flower,
in tomorrow's garden.
I'm going to start a fire,
with some future wood.
I'm going to leave my past where I should.
I'm going to stand where I haven't stood,
before.
I'm not going to pass through that door,
again.
And as long as I'm alive,
I'm going to walk on love's shore.
As long as I'm alive,
I will never be poor.
I have found my fortune.
What else is love for?

Love, Alan

REMEMBER

Rewind your past,
tell me where you have been Replay your feelings,
tell me where to begin.
Let me know your heartaches,
tell me of your joy.
Retrace your path
all that lifelong way.
Tell me what you need to hear,
and what you had to say.
Tell me of the things you found,
in living day to day.
Dig out that long lost memory,
that makes you what you are.
Unlock the secrets,
of those memory bins.
Then fill my eyes with love,
from where your love begins.

Love,
Alan

WITHOUT WORDS

I thought I saw a smile,
    directed straight at me.
A warm smile of love,
    that no one else could see.
I painted a portrait of it,
    trying to keep it to me.
I filed it under love,
    but my heart set it free.
And when it was returned,
    so no one else could see,
    she moved and smiled once again,
    moving straight at me.
I took her hand,
    and she could see,
    that without words,
    we had found,
    what could only be.

Love,
Alan

Francis O. Gabler

Frank Gabler is retiring as Principal of Herkimer High School. His contributions to the Herkimer schools span twenty-six years. A graduate of the speech education program at Syracuse University, he came to Herkimer in 1947 with a background of military service. Within the memories of many Herkimer alumni are "The Song of Bernadette," "Harvey," "Lost Horizon" and a backstage crew out-classed by none.

In 1956 he became Principal of Herkimer High School and has been at the helm during many fine years for the school. In 1959 he engineered the move into the new high school building and proudly took many a citizen and civic group through its halls. His administrative leadership was recognized state-wide with his election to the Presidency of the New York State Secondary School Principals' Association in 1966. Many educational leaders within the state know Frank Gabler and to know him is to know Herkimer High School.

He has always been proud of his student body and has told them so. Through an invaluable, sensitive balance between firmness, good humor and understanding he has helped develop over the years a Herkimer High School atmosphere in which good teaching, solid achievements and a student-oriented approach has kept an even keel. He has helped to keep alive a thread of tradition, blending it with progressiveness. It has given continuity, solidness and meaning during some rather tumultous years for young people. For many years he has not counted the hours. For instance, he spent eighteen hour work days when Herkimer High School initiated new scheduling techniques. He likes to talk with students and takes a great interest in all of their activities. Many a student has said, "You can talk with Mr. Gabler." On the lighter side, he can always draw on his fund of jokes and quotes to fit an occasion. He projects a personal involvement with Herkimer High School. He cares for the community, the school and its staff and, above all, the young people.

Edith D. Jones

In this troubled world it's refreshing to find Someone who still has the time to be kind,
Someone who still has the faith to believe
That the more you give the more you receive,
Someone who's ready by thought, word or deed
To reach out a hand in the hour of need.

Helen Steiner Rice

These lines represent the view of life that Edith Jones has. Nothing in her thirty years in education, first as a social studies teacher at Homer, New York, and at Herkimer and later as a guidance counselor and Director of Guidance at Herkimer, has changed her respect and feeling for her fellow beings.

She is a true friend, one who makes our lives better because she is there with time to listen to us speak of our problems, our joy of achievement, our sorrows of failure. When we talk with such a friend, we find a solution to our problems or, if not, learn to better live with them. Such a friend makes our lives better because we know there is always someone who really cares about us.

One cannot say enough good things about such a friend.

One cannot say enough good things about Mrs. Edith Jones, who is a true friend to us all of the time.

Desiderata

Go placidly amid the noise and haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even dull and ignorant; they, too, have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter, for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment, it is perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore, be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations in the noisy confusion of life, Keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.
